
Idioms

1.	Act For	Akbar acts for the manager in his absence.
2.	Take After	She takes after her mother
3.	Look up	Students looked up the books in the cupboard.
4.	Hang out	He hanged out his opinion in this matter.
5.	Bear out	If the charge is bear out, he will pay fine.
6.	Look after	The gardener looks after the garden.
7.	Control over	He has no control over his son.
10.	Rely on	Do not rely on others.
11.	Bring up	Parents bring up their children.
12.	Cause of	Carelessness is a cause of accident.
13.	Find out	We should find out the causes of bribery.
14.	Talk with	We have to talk with our opponents.
15.	Act upon	Students act upon the advice of their teachers.
16.	Swing on	He swings on his little arm.
17.	Take out	The police took out the prisoner.

18.	Take off	The aero plan has taken off at 5 o'clock.
19.	Wipe away	We should wipe away the tears of the poor.
20.	Deprive of	I shall not deprive you of anything.
21.	Bow down	The Muslims bow down before Allah.
22.	Stand by	I always stand by my decision
23.	Give up	You should give up smoking.
24.	Keep back	He is keeping back his intention in this matter.
25.	Pity for	I have pity for the poor.
26.	Put up	The case is put up to the director for decision.

29.	Get through	My brother got through this novel.
30.	Care of	He takes good care of his health.
31.	Aim at	He aims at first position in the class.
32.	Differ with	His opinion is differed with my views.
33.	Take back	The enemy was taken back very soon.
34.	Look for	She is looking for her book.
35.	Make up	He made up his mind to solve the problem.
36.	Pass by	We are passing by a river.

37.	Take round	He took me round the garden
38.	Mourn at	We should not mourn at our failure.
39.	Call out	They will call out all my ability.
40.	Call up	I will call you up in the evening.
41	Look down upon	We should not look down upon the poor.
42.	Get over	Try to get over your difficulties.
43.	Break open	He broke open my lock and stole my watch.
44.	Object to	He objected to my plan

48.	Get on	She cannot get on with her husband.
49.	Ignorant of	She was ignorant of my plan.
50.	Set off	They set off for Lahore by train.
51.	Peep through	He peeped through the window.
52.	Break out	Cholera has broken out in the city.
53.	Laugh at	Do not laugh at the poor.
54.	Relate to	Asma is related to Amjad.
55.	Bring down	Do not bring down yourself respect at any cost.

56.	Put on	He put on his new shoes.
57.	Call in	Call in the doctor.
58.	Consist of	Our house consists of five rooms.
59.	Bring about	Government brought about changes in education.
60.	Roll down	Tears rolled down her cheeks.
61.	Aware of	I am aware of my responsibility.
62.	Proud of	She is proud of her husband.
63.	Get up	He gets up early in the morning.
64.	Wait for	Mother is waiting for her son.
67.	Look at	She looked at the sky.
68.	Send for	He sent for a doctor.
69.	Put off	The decision was put off till next meeting.
70.	Wipe out	We should wipe out ignorance.
71.	Belong to	This house belongs to me.
72.	Wake up	He woke up early in the morning.
73.	Take over	He took over as a new principal.
74.	Agree with	He agreed with my proposal.

75.	Deal with	I can deal with my opponent.
76.	Hope for	Let us hope for the bright future.
77.	Knock at	He is knocking at the door.
78.	Run over	A child was run over by a truck.
79.	Hope of	There is no hope of his survival.
80.	Set up	He set up a new school.
81.	Take part	Students should take part in games.
82.	Knock down	They knocked down the wall.
83.	Worn out	His clothes were worn out.

86.	Wander over	He wandered over the city.
87.	Refer to	His promotion case is referred to the secretary.
88.	Part with	He will not part with his property.
89.	Lead to	This road leads to Raja bazaar.
90.	Depend on	We should not depend on others.
91.	Assure of	I assured him off my help.
92.	Blow out	The wind blew away out the candle.
93.	Break out	Malaria has broken out in the village.

94.	Break into	Three dacoits broke into the bank last morning.
95.	Break up	They broke up their meeting within two hours.
96.	Call off	If it rains, we shall call off the picnic.
97.	Come by	She did not come by his ideal.
98.	Cut down	You should cut down your expenses.
99.	Eligible for	I am not eligible for this post.
100.	Get along	How are you getting along with your neighbor?
101.	Get into	Ali got into the train at city station Karachi.
102.	Get off	We got off the taxi near the G.P.O.
105.	Give away	The chairman gave away the prizes to the winners.
106.	Give in	At last they gave in; he cannot give up smoking.
107.	Hush up	The matter was hushed up by the court of arbitration.
108.	Hold over	The meeting was held over till the further announcement.
109.	Hold water	Your arguments do not hold water.
110.	Indulge in	Never indulge in gambling.
111.	Keep back	She kept back noting from her mother.
112.	Knock down	His property was knocked down for fifty thousand rupees.

113.	Lay by	She has laid by some money for her old age.
114.	Make away	He made away with the valuable things of the house.
115.	Make for	He always makes for the poor.
116.	Make up	Both the friends have made up their quarrel.
117.	Meddle with	I don't want to meddle with his domestic affair.
118.	Neglect of	He is terminated from his service for neglect of duty.
119.	Pass away	My son Aslam passed away in the hospital.
120.	Refer to	His case has referred to the Specialist.
121.	Put out	Please! Put out the lamp and go to your bed
124.	Set aside	He has set aside my suggestions.
125.	Stick to	I will stick to my promise.
126.	Take over	He has taken over the charge of new headmaster.
127.	Victim to/of	He is victim to fraud of his relatives.
128.	Wear out	His shoes are not quite worn out.
129.	Zeal for	They are full of zeal for their work.
130.	Fall short of	The payment against my book fell short of my expectations.
131.	Bear in mind	I always bear in mind your love.

132.	Get rid of	She got rid of her toothache.
133.	Jealous of	It is not good to be jealous of others.
134.	Make friends	He is a master to make friends with everybody.

Board Paper Phrasal Verbs

Call off	If it rings, we shall call off the picnic.
Go through	I have gone through this newspaper.
Carry out	He carried out the order of his officer.

Look after	The gardeners look after the garden.
Turn down	The judge turned down the wall.
Cut off	He was cut off in the prime of life.
Bring about	A reformer brings about reforms in a society.
Get through	I work hard to get through the examination.
Give up	She gave up her bad habits.
Call in	Call in the doctor.
Keep in	We must keep in mind the rules and regulation of the country.

Cast away	Be cast away on a desert island.
Come off	When does his birthday come off?
Give up	She gave up her bad habits.
Break into	Three dacoits broke into the bank last mooring.
Do without	I can't not do without tea.
Look after	The gardeners look after the garden.
Make up	Both the friends have made up their quarrel.
Bring about	Government brought about changes in education.
Cut off	He was cut off in the prime of life.
Set off	They set off for Lahore by train.
Come to	He did not come to school due to illness.
Agree to	Do you agree to my proposal?
Work out	We have a worked out a proper plan to meet the danger.
Die of	He dead of cancer.
Fond of	Ali is fond of reading story books.
Laugh at	Do not laugh at the poor.
Act upon	He acted upon my advice.

Look after	She looks after her children.
Look for	He is looking for his book.
Take after	The child takes after his father.
Bring down	Never bring down your self-respect.
Put on	He put on his new shoes.
Call in	Call in the doctor.
Act upon	Students act upon the advice of their teachers.
Drop out	One student has drop out of our class.
handover	Please handover these ornaments to them.
Look into	Both the parties are agreed to look into the matter.
Stand by	I always stand by my decision.
Put out	Please! Put out the lamp and go to your bed.
Set off	He peeped through the window.
Keep on	We keep on waiting for you.
Dawn to dusk	The farmers work from dawn to dusk.
Turn out	He turned out his servant.
Bring about	What brought about your failure?

promote	He promoted literacy.
consent	I can not go there without my father consent.
preach	We should preach Islam.
Sincere	He is very sincere.
luxury	We are enjoying all the luxuries of life.
hatch	Hence hatch eggs.
programme	We made a programme to go out.
quick	He is quick at understanding.
development	We work for the development of our country.

reduce	We should try to reduce poverty.
Free of cost	He gave me this pen free of cost.
moment	It was a great moment of happiness.
Wonderful	It was a wonderful sight.
quick	He is quick at understanding.
Beneath	There was a river beneath.
Take up	He has taken up arts subjects.
humble	We should humble to Allah.

---

colonies	The bees live in colonies.
stretch	The daffodils were stretching along the lake joyfully.
Set out	He set out on a journey.
compel	He compelled me to leave the house.
appoint	He was appointed in this office as a clerk.
civilized	The arabs became civilized people.
preach	We should preach Islam.
humble	We should be humble to Allah.
valour	I admire his valour.
wonderful	It is a wonderful sight.
truth	He always speaks the truth
float	Woods float on water.
Becomes of	What becomes of rain when it falls?
Run over	A car ran over a child.
stomach	His stomach is upset.
interest	He takes no interest in studies.
promote	He promoted literacy.

valour	I admire his valour.
grief	We should lighten others grief.
stray	We should not stray the right path.
puzzle	He was very puzzled.
fear	You fear of him.
scold	I scolded him for his mistake.
restoration	We shall work for the restoration of peace.
humble	We should humble to Allah.
Set out	He set out on a journey.
stomach	His stomach is upset.
reduce	Reduce the speed limit.
Not possible	If it does not rain, life is not possible.
float	Woods float on the water.
stomach	His stomach is upset.
compartment	The compartment was empty.
Being taken up	He was being taken up by the aeroplane.
Pass it on	Please passed it on to the next fellow.

Not possible	Life without water is not possible.
wonder	I wondered at the sudden change in him.
vanished	He vanished un the jungle.
Fond of	He is fond of tea.
belong to	I belong to a noble family.
Rural	We live in the rural area.
stomach	His stomach is upset.
facilitate	Computer has facilitated learning.
Being taken up	He was being taken up in the aeroplane.

Because of	He was given the title of "Saifullah" because of his bravery.
amazement	He looked here and there in amazement.
decorate	He decorated his office.
stomach	His stomach is upset.
hatch	The hen hatches the eggs.
Compared with	As compared with Ali, he is a good man.
Taken up	He has taken up science subjects.
truth	He speaks the truth.
beneath	There was a sea beneath.